

Please Do not weaken NJ's Do NOT Call Law, if we choose to have tough rules then let it be. We are very happy with the way it has been working out. Maybe the rest of the country should follow along. Big telemarketing companies lining politicians pockets to get it weakened does not mean it is what the people want. What we want is for them to leave us alone.